Homework: van Hiele

Describe a task you could give to your students to help them develop their geometric thinking. Clearly present the mathematical task and then explain how you would use this problem (what questions you would ask during the class) to help develop thinking. Also discuss which level of thinking this task challenges (for example, “this task targets Level 1 thinking”) and why you believe it would help your students to develop more sophisticated thinking.